

Table of Contents

FOREWORD BY JOHN F. BOYLE	vii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	xi
INTRODUCTION	1
Note on the Translation and the Latin Text	2
Speculative Christology: An Introductory Primer	5
Dating the De unione	6
Key Terms	9
1. Union	9
2. Nature	10
3. Person	10
4. Suppositum and Hypostasis	11
5. Esse	12
The Sources and Theological Parameters Undergirding the De unione	13
1. Aristotle in the De unione	14
a. The Real Distinction of Suppositum and Nature	15
b. Actiones sunt suppositorum	15
c. The Problem of Substantial Unity	16
d. First and Second Substance	17
2. Biblical Sources	20
a. John 1:14	20
b. Philippians 2:5–11	22
3. Creeds and Councils	23
a. Athanasius and the Athanasian Creed: The Body-Soul Analogy in Christ	24
b. Nestorianism and the Council of Ephesus (431)	26
c. Pope Leo the Great and the Council of Chalcedon (451)	29
d. Constantinople II (553)	31
e. Constantinople III (681)	32
4. The Fathers of the Church in the De unione	33
a. Augustine	33
b. Boethius	33

c. Dionysius	38
d. John of Damascus	38
e. Concluding Summary	41
5. Peter Lombard and the “Three Opinions”	42
a. The First Opinion: The homo assumptus Theory	43
b. The Second Opinion: The Subsistence Theory	44
c. The Third Opinion: The habitus Theory	44
6. Conclusion	45
De unione Verbi incarnati: A Summary Essay	46
Article 1: The Mode or Manner of the Union	47
Article 2: The Unity of Hypostasis	52
Article 3: Whether Christ is One in the Neuter or Two	54
Article 4: Christ’s Unity in Being	57
a. The Debate: Cajetan and Diepen	59
b. The Historical Context of the De unione	63
Article 5: Christ’s Operational Unity	66
Speculative Essay: Aquinas and His Critics on Christ’s Esse	67
1. Jean Galot, S.J.	68
2. Thomas Weinandy, O.F.M. Cap.	72
3. Richard Cross	75
4. Conclusion	77
BIBLIOGRAPHY	79
THE TEXT	84
NOTES	149
INDICES	153