DESCRIPTION:
Recently many European legislators have passed a substantive law that governs the validity of the living will. In most cases however they have not addressed the conflict of laws in dealing with living wills. In her thesis, Anna-Luisa Lemmerz develops a German conflict of laws rule on the basis of relevant methodology for handling cross-border living wills.