

Egyptian and Roman Antiquities, and Renaissance Decorative Arts

by Elena Vaiani, Simonetta Prosperi Valenti Rodinò and Helen Whitehouse

DESCRIPTION:

This catalogue includes almost 400 drawings of mainly small antiquities such as vases, lamps, mirrors, tripods, bells, armour, weights, measures, musical instruments, mirrors, brooches and jewellery, as well as designs for Renaissance and seventeenth-century vases, candelabra, princely gold and silver tableware. Amongst the antiquities are a distinct group of Egyptian artefacts and some of the earliest known records of Greek vases, together with countless objects of everyday life. Amongst the modern designs are works by sixteenth- and seventeenth-century Italian artists such as Luzzio Luzzi, Giovanni Battista Montano, Giovanni Angelo Canini, Lelio Orsi and others.
